The Daily Gazetteer.

MONDAY, JULY 26. 1736.

91: 337.

Laſt Saturday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Peterſburg, July 2. O. S.

LAST Week the Court receiv'd an Expreſs from the Count de Munich, with Advice that on the 5th of June laſt, that General made himſelf Maſter of the City of Koſlow in Crim Tartary without any Reſiſtance; for the Turkiſh Gariſon retir'd at his Approach, and failed on board 30 Tranſports for Conſtantinople. 'Tis a Town of conſiderable Trade, and has a Harbour on the Black Sea, from whence 'tis but a few Days ſail to Conſtantinople. There were 20 Pieces of Cannon found in the Place, and Ball enough to ſerve the Army for a long time, beſides a great Quantity of Precious Merchandize, as Gold, Pearls, and rich Stuffs, which the Armenians and Turks that dwelt in the Town, could not carry off with them, when their Conſternation obliged them to retire with the Gariſon, at the Approach of our Troops. The Army after four Days Stay near Koſlow, not only for Refreſhment, but to ſtock itſelf with Proviſions which are there in great Plenty, marched for Baccievara, the Capital of Crim Tartary, where it hoped to arrive in a Week's time.

The ſame Expreſs has brought News, that the Turkiſh Admiral having deſpair'd of relieving Aſoph, ſailed with his Squadron to Caffa in the Crim-Country, and relieved it with 3000 Men.

By another Expreſs which arrived here the ſame Day we had Advice, that Lieutenant General Leontiew, who was detach'd from Precop towards the Dnieper, had made himſelf Maſter on the 8th of June laſt, of the Fortreſs of Kimburn, ſituate on this Side of that River, over-againſt Oczakow, to which Town the Turkiſh Gariſon, conſiſting of 2000 Men was ſent, except a few Officers whom that General detain'd till the Turks reſtor'd 250 Ruſſians whom they had taken Priſoners before his Arrival. There were found in Kimburn 40 Pieces of Cannon, 30,000 Sheep, and 3000 Horſes. The Conqueſt of this Place is of the greater Importance, becauſe the Army has, by this Means, ſecur'd a Paſſage, over the Dnieper, as well as all the Country ſituate to the Eaſt of that River.

This Morning M. de Laſci, Lieutenant Colonel and Aid de Camp, to the Velt Marſhal de Laſci, arrived here with the agreeable News, that the City of Aſoph ſurrender'd on the 20th of June O. S. that the ſame Day our Troops took Poſſeſſion of the Crown Work, and that next Day the Gariſon was to evacuate the Place.

Berlin, July 13. O. S. Yeſterday Morning the Baron de Brackel, the Czarina's Miniſter at this Court, received an Expreſs from Petersburg, with News that the Baſhaw who commanded in Aſoph, finding himſelf unable to defend the Place any longer, ſurrendered himſelf, and all his Gariſon, Priſoners of War to the Velt Marſhal de Laſci, to whom the General himſelf delivered the Keys of the Town in a Silver Baſon. The Baron immediately imparted this News, by order of his Court, to the King's Cabinet Miniſters, and deſir'd them to acquaint his Majeſty therewith. Thus is the Court of Ruſſia again in Poſſeſſion of Aſoph, which it loſt in 1711 by the Treaty of Pruth.

The Report that the King of Pruſſia arrived on the 2d Inſtant at Koningsberg, is not true. On the 27th ult. his Majeſty paſſed the Weiſſel near Marienwerder, but 'twas with great Difficulty; for the heavy Rains which had fallen in thoſe Parts during 8 Days together, had cauſed ſuch Floods in the Low Country, that the like have not been known there in the Memory of Man; great Numbers of Cattle were drown'd, ſeveral Houſes overturned by the Rapidity of the Waters, and a great many Bridges and Mills carried away; ſo that the Damage thereby, occaſioned in the Neighbourhood of Marienwerder, Elbing, and Dantzick, is inexpreſſible. On the 3d, his Majeſty arrived in the Camp at Velau, where he was received by General Katte who commands there, and by all the Officers on Foot at the Head of the Regiments.

Yeſterday we had an Account of the Death of Marſhal Bieberſtein, after about a Fortnight's Illneſs, who was the late King's Ambaſſador at the Congreſs of Utrecht: He has left only one Sone, and is very much lamented by the King, and all that knew him.

They write from the Camp at Velau, that they have had extraordinary Weather there for ſeveral Days paſt: Every Morning the Sky is ſerene, and the Sun exceſſive hot, but in the Afternoons they have terrible Storms of Hail and Rain, mixed with Lightening, which ſet fire to ſeveral Places: Some of the Hail-ſtones were bigger than Nutmegs, and all the Countries towards the Weiſſel are laid under Water.

Warſaw, July 5. O. S. The following is the Reſult of the General Dyet of Pacification, the laſt Seſſion of which was on the 28th of June, and held till 5 o'Clock next Morning, when all the Reſolutions of the Dyet were drawn up in Preſence of the King himſelf, who did not leave his Throne till the whole was finiſhed and committed to Writing, viz.

'That the Amneſty ſhall not be general, but extend 'only to the Troops that are upon the Crown Eſtabliſhment, and to ſuch Soldiers as ſhall be able to produce 'their Colonels Orders for what they have done: 'That, on the contrary, thoſe Perſons who had committed any Outrages of their own Accord, ſhall be 'proſecuted and puniſhed according to Law: That all 'Confederacies made during the late Troubles ſhall be 'revoked and made void: That Commiſſioners ſhall 'be appointed to ſettle the Augmentation of the Crown 'Army, and to appropriate the Funds neceſſary for 'that Purpoſe: That, according to ancient Cuſtom, a 'Sum ſhall be granted to the Queen of 200,000 Florins per Annum, out of the Revenues of the two principal Staroſties of Poland and Luthania: That this 'Princeſs ſhall moreover have 2000 Ducats for her Pin 'Money, payable out of the Crown Treaſury: That 'the Saxon Troops ſhall retire out of Poland within '40 Days, reckoning from the 28th of June, O. S. 'That after the Death of Duke Ferdinand of Courland, 'if that Prince leaves no Male Iſſue, the States of the 'Dutchy ſhall have a Right to chooſe a new Duke, 'who ſhall be confirmed by the King: That, for the 'future, the Marſhal of the Chamber of Deputies ſhall 'be elected on the Day of the opening of the Dyet, 'and that they ſhall immediately conſider of Ways and 'Means for eſtabliſhing the ſtricteſt Intelligence with 'the Emperor, the Court of Ruſſia, and the Ottoman 'Porte.' — The happy Succeſs of this Dyet has occaſioned a Joy here that is inexpreſſible.

Vienna, July 7. O. S. The Princeſs Victoria of Savoy has made a Preſent to his Imperial Majeſty, of the moſt curious Animals that were in the Managery of her Uncle the late Prince Eugene. A Draught is taking for the King of France, of that ſtately Mauſoleum which the Emperor is erecting to the Honour of that great General's Memory.

Ratisbon, July 11. O. S. The Proteſtant Body at the Dyet has lately received a Latin Letter from the King of Great Britain, of which the following is a Tranſlation:

'George II. by the Grace of God, King of Great 'Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, 'Duke of Brunſwick-Lunenbourg, Arch-Treaſurer 'and Elector of the Holy Roman Empire:

'To the moſt noble and moſt prudent the Counſellors and Envoys of the Electors, Princes, and States 'of the Holy Roman Empire, of the Augsbourg Confeſſion, deputed to, and aſſembled in the Dyet of the 'Empire at Ratisbon, OUR VERY GOOD FRIENDS, 'Greeting,

'We have received the Letter which you wrote to 'us on the 26th of May laſt, from the Dyet of Ratiſbon, and are very well pleaſed to find, that you approve of our Reaſons for procuring the Revocation of 'the Clauſe in the 4th Article of the Treaty of Reſwick. The Deſire which you expreſs that we would 'continue our utmoſt Endeavours for bringing to Perfection a Work ſo neceſſary for the Welfare of all the 'Proteſtant States of the Holy Roman Empire, is 'equally juſt and laudable. This Sentiment is likewiſe ſo agreeable to our own upon that Head, that 'we are reſolved, in Conjunction with the States General of the United Provinces, and the other Proteſtant Princes concerned in this Affair, to omit no 'Care nor Pains that it may ſucceed according to their 'Wiſhes. With this View we ſhall do what we can 'with our good Brothers, the Emperor of the Romans 'and the moſt Chriſtian King, to engage them to act 'upon this Occaſion with the ſame profound Wiſdom 'and ſtrict Juſtice, with which they have commonly 'behaved in Affairs that have a View to the Good of 'the Publick; to the End, that by a ſolemn Decree 'of the Empire, agreeable to his Imperial Majeſty's 'Declaration in 1734, and in purſuance of the twenty-'firſt Article of the Treaty which the Court of France 'concluded with us at Utrecht, we may obtain their 'Approbation and Conſent, that the Treaty of Weſtphalia, which is infringed by the Clauſe in that of 'Reſwick, may be intirely repaired, and purſued in 'the Empire, as a Law and a Rule never to be miſconſtrued in a deceitful Senſe. If by our good Offices, 'added to thoſe of the other Princes and States, we 'can bring to a happy Iſſue what you have ſo much at 'Heart, and what with ſo much Reaſon you expect 'from us, nothing will rejoice us more than the Conſideration that we have been able to give ſuch Marks 'of Affection to you, our moſt dear Friends, the Proteſtant States of the Holy Roman Empire, who ſo 'juſtly deſerve them. For the reſt, we heartily recommend you to the divine Protection. Given at our 'Palace at Herenhauſen, the 22d of June, A. D. 1736, 'and in the Tenth Year of our Reign.'

Your good Friend,

GEORGE REX.

And underneath,

WALPOLE.

Rome, July 3. O. S. Tueſday laſt the Pretender and his eldeſt Son had a private Audience of the Pope; and the ſame Day M. Frederick Notent, a Daniſh Sea Captain, was alſo admitted, tho' a Lutheran, to an Audience of his Holineſs, and were graciouſly received. The ſame Day an Expreſs paſſed thro' here, returning from Naples to the Court of Spain, who left an Order from the Catholick King, for all Spaniards, as well thoſe that remained here, as thoſe that are returned from Naples, to ſet out for Spain, without Exception, even to the third Generation, which occaſions many Reflections, and an univerſal Surprize.

Advertiſement concerning this Book.

This Maſterpiece of religious Policy was publiſhed, many Years ſince, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookſeller at Amſterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jeſuits being informed that he had purchaſed this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then ſent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amſterdam, hearing it ſaid, ſoon after, to a Catholick Bookſeller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jeſuits, replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he ſhould not be under any Concern; but deſired he would inform himſelf what it was. Being told by the Bookſeller, that it was The Secret Inſtructions of the Society, the good Father, ſhrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, ſaid, that he ſaw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers howe ver thought it more adviſeable to purchaſe the whole Edition, which they ſoon after did, ſome few Copies excepted; from one of theſe it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there ſaid to be taken from two Roman Catholicks, Men of Credit.
